

Please do not weaken the Wisconsin no call list. Listen to the people that you represent not to the big corporations that try to buy influence. For once you have done something right with the no call list. DO not screw it up.